

Fold Housing

Delivering a new model of housing for older people in Ireland

Kath Cottier
CEO

Ireland's population is ageing

Source: CSO

Supply vs. demand

Growing number of older renters

Rising social housing waiting lists

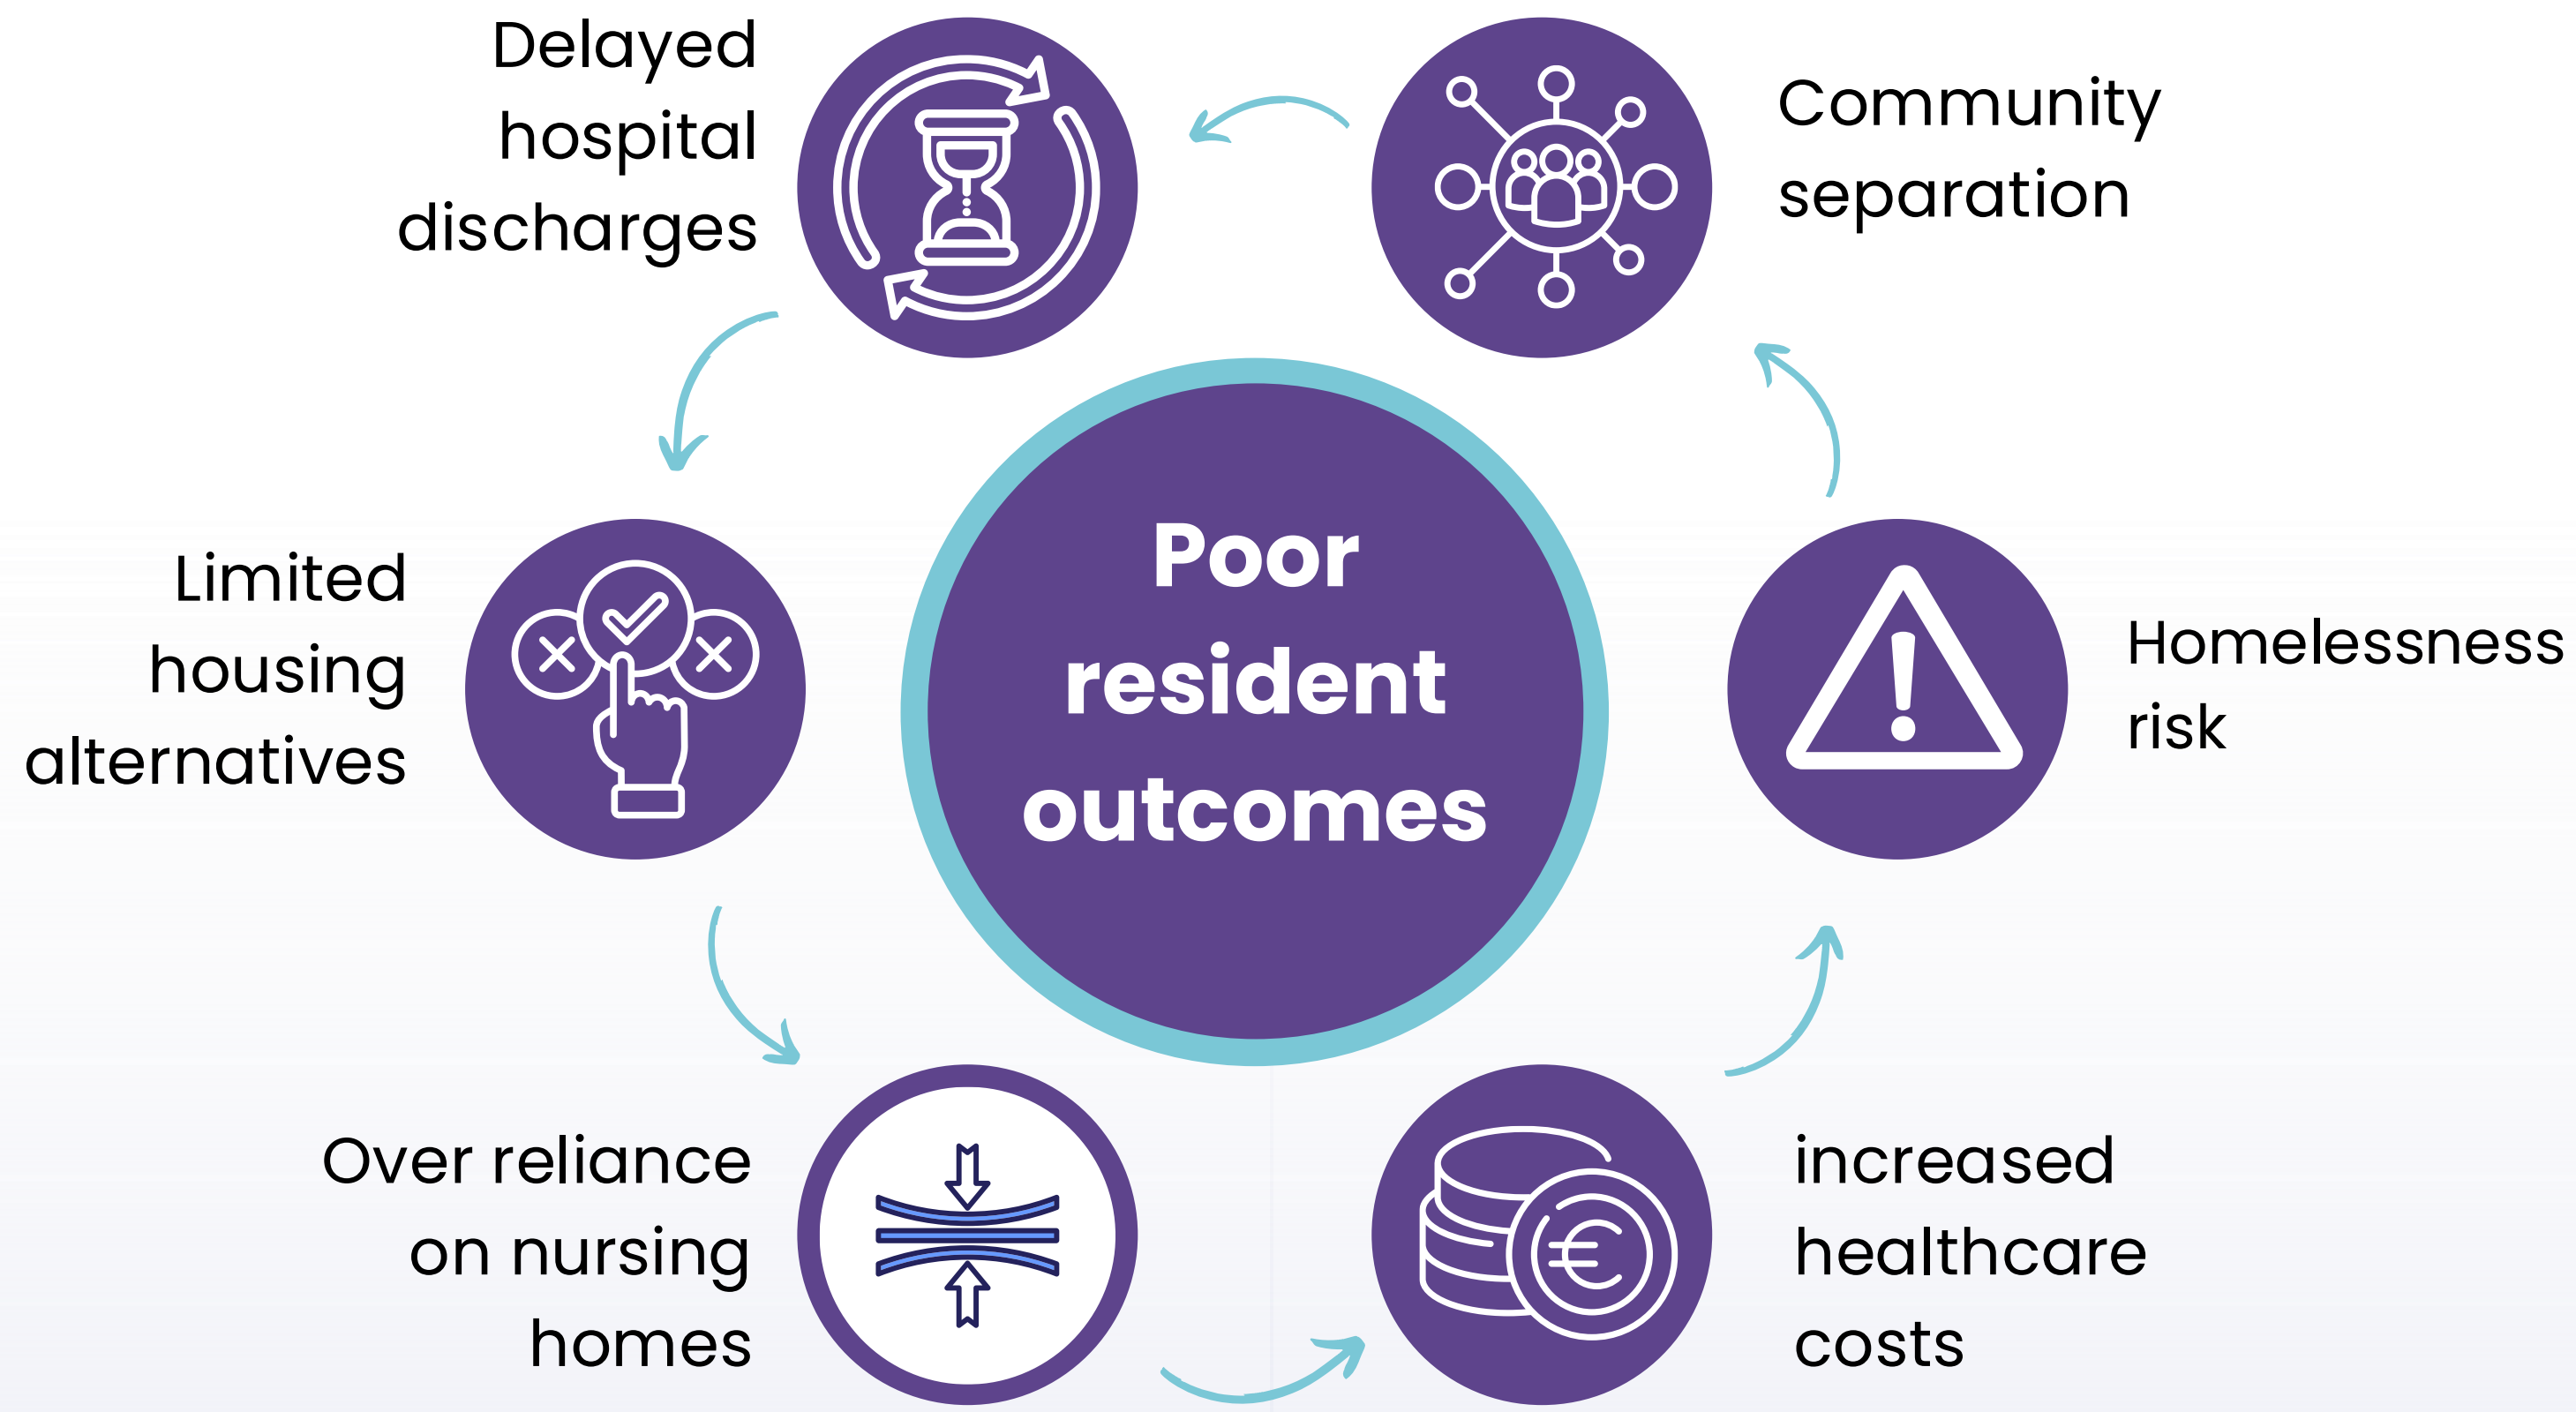

Limited specialist housing stock

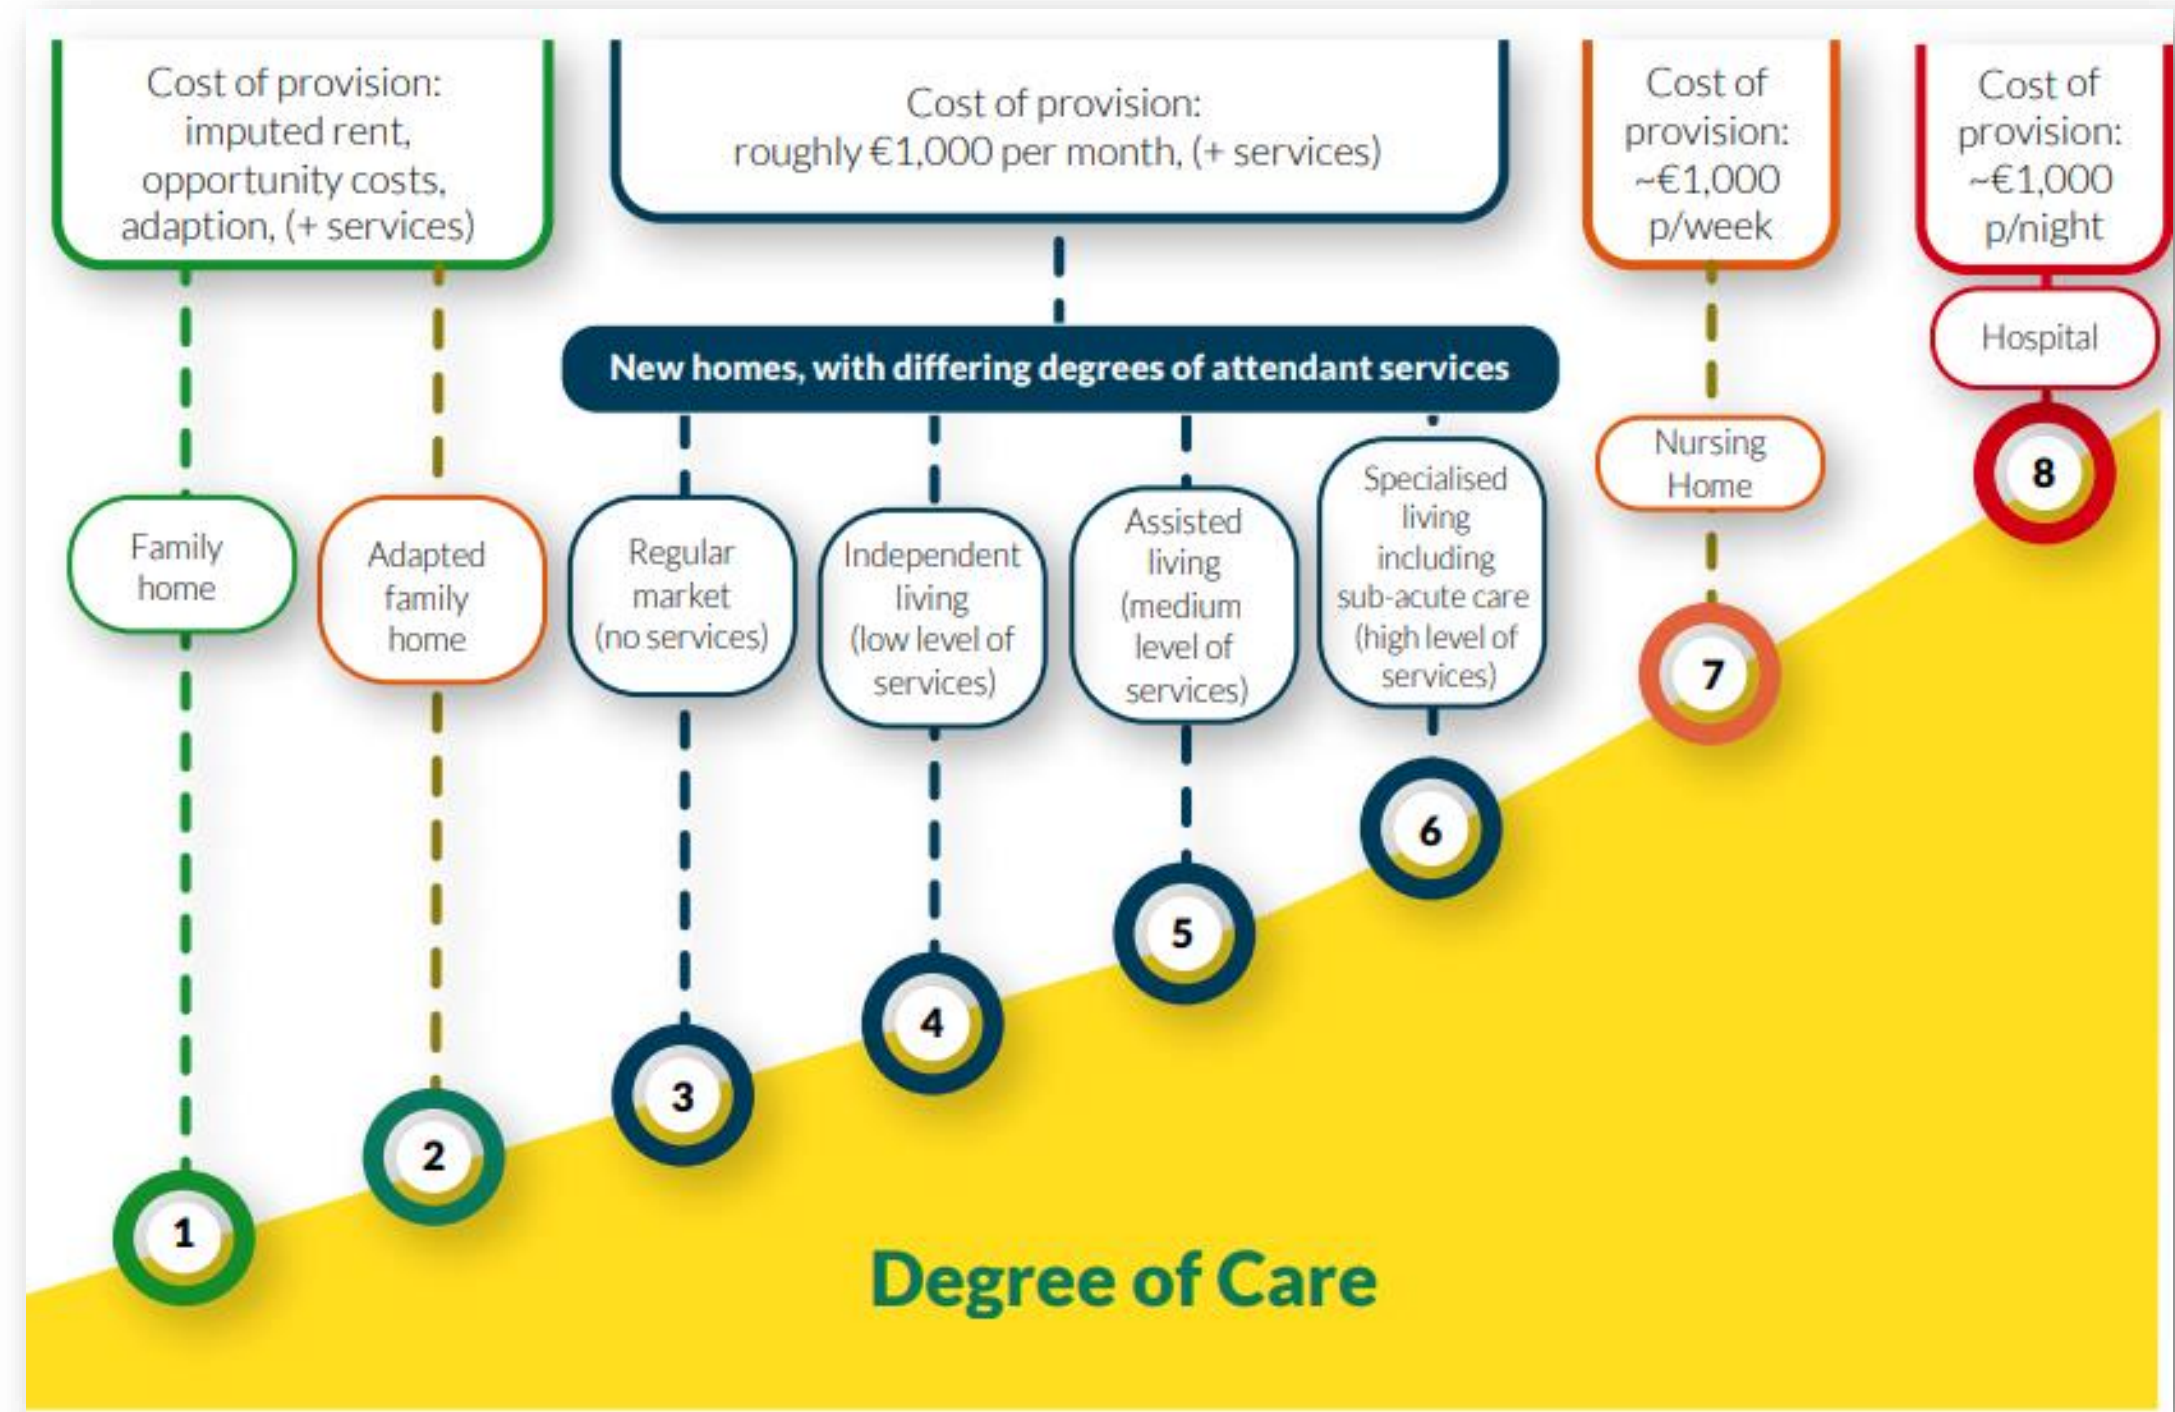

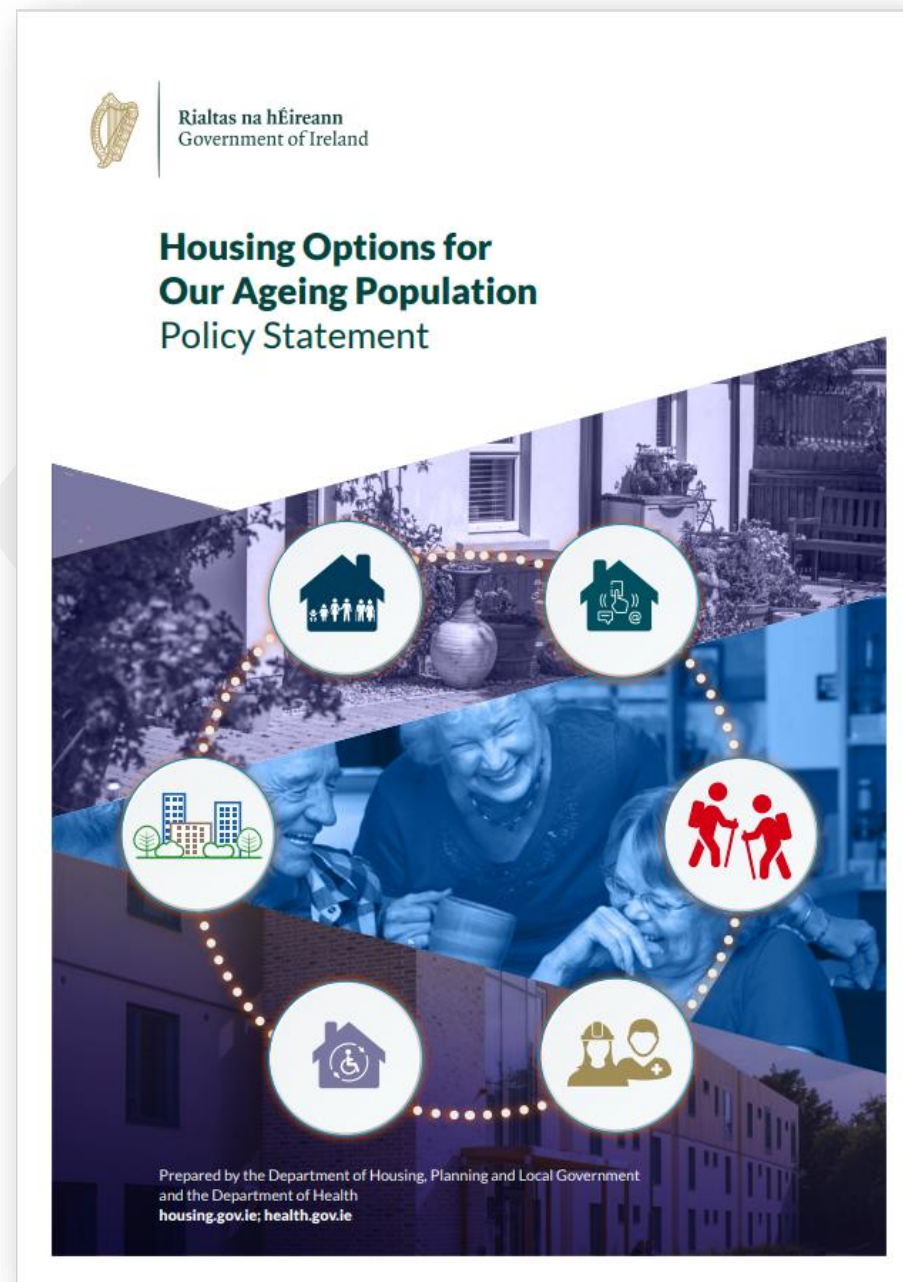

Access (Housing and Care Services)

System pressure

Spectrum of housing and care models

Supporting ageing in place

Adapt/Retrofit existing homes

Build more
homes –
Increase
choices

Increase /
further strengthen community
services

Promote universal
design

What good looks like

Independence

Social connection

Wellbeing and good health

Feeling safe

Support and care when needed

Security

Financial stability

The role of Approved Housing Bodies

Innovate new housing models

Build and deliver specialist housing

Partner with government and healthcare providers

Provide supports and care

Value for money

Fold Housing vision

A society where older people have a great quality of life and choice.

Our mission

Our mission is to provide quality homes and support to people who need them and also, to be a leader in developing housing solutions for older people.

1,217 Residents

861 Homes

541 Older Persons Independent Living

112 Housing with Care

209 Family Housing

Older Persons – Independent Living

Clusters of designated older persons homes

Universal Design Principles

Resident engagement

Health and wellbeing programmes

Indoor and outdoor communal facilities

24 Emergency call system

Fold Colleagues regularly on site

Advocacy and sign posting

Housing with care

Residential Home

Dementia / Frail Elderly

Individual rooms

Shared communal facilities

Meals, cleaning and laundry

24 hour personal care

Extensive health and wellbeing programmes

- A distinctive model of social care
- Prevents unnecessary hospital and nursing home admissions
- Regulation and Partnership
- Value for money / targeted

Our
impact —

Our
stories

Meeting the needs of older people

- 1 Cross-departmental collaboration
- 2 Expanded funding supports
- 3 Person centred services
- 4 A national strategy
- 5 Aligned policy and service delivery

Would you like to connect?

Kath Cottier

kathleen.cottier@foldireland.ie